Coram : J.H.Bhatia, J.
Dated : 4th February, 2009.

Read letter dated 27th January, 2009 from 7th Joint Civil Judge, Senior Division, Nagpur, seeking extension of time to dispose of Special Civil Suit No.117/1991, which is also required to be taken along with another Regular Civil Suit No. 3366/2001. The special civil suit is required to be disposed of within six months as per order dated 16.6.2008. Both the matters have been transferred to the present Judicial Officer recently. As per his report, Advocates for the parties are not cooperating with the Court for adjudication of the matters.

Mr. Sarda, learned counsel for the plaintiff, who was respondent in the petition makes a statement that the plaintiff is cooperating with the Court for adjudication of the matters and also makes a statement that the plaintiff has filed Contempt Petition against the Civil Judge because the matter is not disposed of.

The learned counsel shall make a statement about the stage of the contempt petition.

Stand over to 11.2.2009.

JUDGE

Ambulkar.
